

THE OLD CATHEDRAL, Vincennes, Indiono — St. Francis Xavier Church was founded in 1702. The present stately old Cothedrol is the third church on this site ond was projected in 1825, the corner stone being loid with elaborate ceremony in 1826. Its two predecessors for worship were built of logs, the first of which Indion converts assisted in erecting. Thirty-nine postors have served this church during these many years. Seven of these have ottained high positions in the church, six as bishops and one os on orchbishop. The four first bishops of the diocese of Vincennes ore buried in the crypt of the present church. The diocese is now known os "Indionopolis." The library contoins some of the oldest books ond rorest monuscripts in this section of the country.
